

FIERCE GERMAN ATTACKS SUCCESSFULLY RESISTED

Confidence Growing That Latest Offensive Movement to Gain Channel Ports Will Fail.

FIGHT IN VICINITY OF YPRES

This Section Expected Now to Be Storm Centre of Struggle—President of France and Belgian King Review Troops.

PARIS, November 3.—Confidence is growing here that the latest offensive movement of the Germans in Belgium, whereby they hope to gain a clear route to the French channel ports, will fail. All reports here are that the allies have successfully withstood repeated and violent attacks.

The official statement of the Belgian general staff indicates a shift in the scene of the German attack from the north coast, where they fought so hard and stubbornly to the vicinity of Ypres. This region, it is declared, already has been the scene of the most violent attacks and counterattacks in which both sides have lost heavily.

The expectation here is that the Ypres front now will be the storm centre of the fighting, for a time at least, as the German objective appears to be the route to Saint Omer. In the Department of Pas Calais, twenty-two miles southeast of the port of Calais.

The news of the French success around St. Marc-Aux-Mines and St. Die in the Vosges region, was eagerly received here. The developments in this region assured the French of a solid position in a difficult region where it is expected, they shortly will win a greater success.

BOMBARDMENT OF FURNES

DOES NOT STOP REVIEW

A bombardment of Furnes, in Belgium, twenty-six miles southwest of Ypres, by the Germans, did not prevent the review there yesterday of the French and Belgian troops by President Poincaré of France; King Albert of Belgium, and Alexandre Millerand, the French War Minister.

While the shells of the German guns apparently directed against the railroad station at Furnes, were exploding at frequent intervals, the President, King and War Minister, were in the neighborhood of the Hotel Duville. There, to the strains of the "Marseillaise" and the "Brabançonne," the national airs of the two countries, the soldiers of France and Belgium passed by. All the men displayed the greatest enthusiasm.

Later President Poincaré, Minister Millerand and General Joffre had a long interview with the King, to whom the president expressed fervent admiration of the Belgians and best wishes on behalf of France.

Before the review President Poincaré and his party paid their respects to Queen Elizabeth, of Belgium, at the royal residence. On leaving, the President passed the afternoon among the French troops operating on the Ypres front.

President Poincaré was in Dunkirk Sunday evening where he saw Lord Kitchener, the British Minister of War, and Premier Charles Delcroix, of Belgium.

WARNING TO NEUTRAL SHIPS

Not Forbidden to Enter North Sea, but Do So at Their Own Peril.

WASHINGTON, November 3.—As interpreted at the State Department, the British government's notice that the North Sea had become a field of military operations does not mean that neutral vessels are forbidden to enter those waters. It is viewed simply as a warning that ships entering the North Sea do so at their peril.

The British government has promised to supply the State Department with a full report upon the conditions under which the Red Star liner Kronland is detained at Gibraltar, and the department will await the receipt of this report before it decides to follow up its original protest against the detention of the ship. This is irrespective of the proceedings of the prize court, to which the British authorities have referred the case of the Kronland.

ALLIES AND TURKEY NOW ACTUALLY AT WAR

British Warship Bombed and Destroyed Barracks at Akabah, on Turko-Egyptian Frontier.

HOURS OF UNCERTAINTY END

Porte's Offer to Apologize Not Followed by Sufficient Amends for Incidents in Black Sea—England Prepares to Check Invasion of Egypt.

LONDON, November 3.—Great Britain and Turkey are at war; Germany has recruited an ally in the East. After twenty-four hours of uncertainty, during which hope was expressed that the Porte might make amends for the incidents in the Black Sea, the British admiralty announced shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon a British warship had been bombed and had destroyed the Turkish barracks at Akabah, on the Turko-Egyptian frontier.

It was at Akabah that Turkish cavalry patrols were reported yesterday preparatory to moving into Egypt. There the British found soldiers, apparently under German, serving as quasi-Turks, much in the same manner as the German officers remain in charge of the cruisers Breslau and Goeben, and British officials say there was no course but to open hostilities.

Turkey's formal entrance into war with the allies, for France cannot but follow Great Britain, came at a time when the Turkish ambassadors, still at London and Paris, were uncertain what next was to come.

An apology from the Grand Vizier for Turkish attacks on Russian ports, and doubt as to who held the whiphand in the Sultan's government, together with the attitude of the Balkan states, were factors, which, blended, seemed to carry such weight as to make Turkey hesitate.

LONDON PRESS EVER CONCILIATORY IN TONE

The London Press was ever conciliatory in tone, hoping to the last that the matter would be adjusted. The newspapers maintained this tone, notwithstanding the reported Turkish activity in Egypt. The British all along have claimed that Germany was responsible for the Turkish unrest, and if it proves true that the Akabah garrison was German or part German, the charge of a widespread conspiracy in the East, Englishmen say, will seem to be sustained.

The British admiralty statement concerning the engagement there, the first of the latest phase of the great war, was brief, not giving the extent of the enemy's loss, but adding that there were no British casualties.

This engagement doubtless will be followed quickly by others in Egypt, while the former German cruisers Goeben and Breslau are likely soon to be heard from in the Black Sea or elsewhere. Great Britain had anticipated such a contingency, and has made preparations to check an invasion of Egypt.

Meanwhile it is announced that Germany has been pouring officers and men in Turkey. Many of them speak Turkish and will command Turkish detachments equipped with modern weapons which the Germans are said to have supplied.

GERMAN WARSHIPS ATTACK BRITISH FLEET OFF CHILE

toward the Year, are finding every where signs of a precipitate retreat.

GERMAN AIRMAN DROPS BOMBS ON FURNES

LONDON, November 3 (4:04 P. M.).—A Central News dispatch from Northern France says a German airman, apparently with the knowledge that King Albert and President Poincaré were to review the cavalry at Furnes, Belgium, dropped several bombs into the town. None of them struck the public square, where the review was to be held, but slight damage was done a short distance away. King Albert and President Poincaré arrived after the craft had disappeared. Thereafter French and Belgian aeroplanes kept the sky clear of the enemy.

ARMY IS ORDERED TO ATTACK TURKS

LONDON, November 3 (4:38 A. M.).—A dispatch from Tiflis, capital of the Russian government of the same name, in Trans-Caucasia to Reuters' Telegram Company, says:

"It is announced that the Emperor has ordered the Caucasian army to cross the frontier and attack the Turks."

GERMAN SUBMARINE AGAIN SAFELY IN PORT

BERLIN, November 3 (via The Hague and London, 5:50 A. M.).—It is officially announced the German submarine which compassed the destruction of the British cruiser Hermes off Dover last Saturday, has returned safely to port. The name of the submarine is not given.

AKABAH SHELLED AND OCCUPIED BY BRITISH

LONDON, November 3 (12:53 P. M.).—The fortified town of Akabah, in Arabia, on an arm of the Red Sea, has been shelled and occupied by the British cruiser Minerva.

Akabah is at the head of the Gulf of Akabah, 150 miles east of Suez.

ALLIES REOCCUPY POINTS ON YSER

PARIS, November 3 (12:47 P. M.).—The French official announcement given out this afternoon says the Germans would appear to have completely abandoned the left bank of the Yser below Dixmude, and that troops of the allies have reoccupied points on the river without great difficulty.

TURKEY DRAWS SWORD IN AN UNHOLY CAUSE

LONDON, November 3 (3:04 P. M.).—Aga Khan, known as the spiritual head of Mohammedans in India, East Africa and Central Asia, has addressed to the Moslems in British dominions a communication expressing deep sorrow that Turkey has lost her position as the host of Islam, having drawn her sword.

Best Treatment for All Complexion Ills

I'll tell you my panacea for all complexion troubles. If the skin be colorless, sallow, muddy, over-red, if it be rough, chapped, blotchy, pimply, or freckled, there's nothing that will so surely overcome the condition as ordinary mercurized wax. The wax literally takes off a bad complexion—absorbs the dead and near-dead particles of surface skin, so gently, gradually, you experience no inconvenience at all. A new complexion is then in evidence, one so clear, spotless, delicately soft and beautiful, you look many years younger. One ounce of this wax, procurable at any drug store, will rejuvenate even the worst complexion. It is smeared on the face with a cold cream brush, and removed with warm water. The mercurized wax has a cooling, refreshing and more economical one than the cosmetic habit.

If the skin be wrinkled or creased, bathe it daily in a solution made by dissolving a ounce of powdered salolite in a half pint of water. This acts immediately, affecting even the deepest wrinkles.—Elsie Desmond, in Beauty's Mirror.

In an unholy cause. The duty of Moslems, he says, is to remain loyal to their temporal and secular allegiance. Turkey's act, continues the message, is not the free will of the Sultan, but the will of the German officers and other non-Moslems who have forced him to do their bidding.

SERBIA ALSO SEVERES RELATIONS WITH TURKEY

LONDON, November 3 (8:40 P. M.).—A Constantinople dispatch states that Serbia to-day severed diplomatic relations with Turkey, and the Serbian ambassador asked for his passport, says the Rome correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company.

ALLIES' SHIPS BOMBARD DARDANELLES FORTS

LONDON, November 3 (11:40 P. M.).—The Secretary of the Admiralty announces that a combined British and French squadron bombarded the Dardanelles forts, at long range at daybreak this morning. The forts replied but no ships were hit, only one shot falling alongside them. The statement adds that the damage to the forts cannot be estimated, but that a great explosion, accompanied by dense volumes of black smoke, occurred at the Helle fort.

FRENCH TAKE OFFENSIVE AFTER GERMAN WITHDRAWAL

WASHINGTON, November 3.—Foreign Office dispatches to the French embassy to-day supplemented the account of the German withdrawal from the south of Dixmude with the statement that "at the end of the day we took up the offensive on our side."

INUNDATIONS PREVENT GERMAN OPERATIONS

AMSTERDAM (via London, 7:45 P. M.), November 3.—The following official dispatch issued in Berlin has been received here:

"A telegram from German headquarters, dated November 3, at noon, states that inundations south of Neuport prevent all operations in that part of the country."

"The water in places is as high as a full-grown man. Our troops have evacuated the inundated districts without loss of men, horses or guns."

"Our attacks on the Ypres are progressing. More than 2,300 men, mostly English, have been captured, and also several machine guns."

"West of Roye severe fighting has taken place, with great loss on both sides, but the situation is unchanged. In the village fight we lost several hundred in missing and two cannons."

"Our attacks on the Aisne, east of Soissons, are successful, despite obstinate resistance. Our troops have occupied several strongly fortified positions beyond Chavonne and Soupe, capturing more than 1,000 French, three cannons and four machine guns."

"Near the cathedral in Soissons the French have posted a heavy battery and made the steeple an observation post."

"Between Verdun and Toul several French attacks have been repulsed. Troops of French soldiers wore German overcoats and helmets."

"In the Vosges, near Markinch, a

French attack was repulsed, and our troops began a counterattack.

"In the east the operations are still in a state of evolution, and there has been no fighting."

"The Russian First Siberian Army Corps, on November 1, used civilians as breastworks while destroying a bridge."

BOMBARDMENT OF RHEIMS RESUMED BY GERMANS

PARIS, November 3 (5:15 P. M.).—The Germans resumed their bombardment of the city of Rheims with great violence on Sunday and Monday, according to a dispatch to the Temps from Bordeaux.

Verdict for Defendant. A verdict for the defendant was returned by the jury in the Circuit Court of Henrico County in the case of Dr. Max Schoenbaum against Dr. C. F. Collins. Alleging that he had been slandered by the defendant, the plaintiff was seeking to recover damages in the sum of $5,000. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Isaac Diggs, while Attorney L. O. Wendenberg appeared for the defendant.

LIMIT ON STAY OF GEORGE. Unless German Cruiser Leaves Honolulu by Set Time, Will Be Interdicted.

WASHINGTON, November 3.—Replying to an inquiry from the Japanese embassy, the State Department announced to-day that it had set a limit on the stay of the German cruiser Geleir at Honolulu, where she put in more than two weeks ago for repairs. Unless the Geleir leaves by a specified date, which was not made public, she will be interned for the war.

It was said the Japanese inquiry was not in the nature of a protest, although Japan is known to be anxious that the case be settled because of the threatened danger to Japanese shipping in the Pacific.

A large Japanese cruiser has been just outside Honolulu since shortly after the Geleir's arrival, and another Japanese battleship arrived there yesterday.
